

Good afternoon and welcome to

---

---

We decided to host this picnic because

---

---

---

In our recent Catholic Social Teaching lessons we have been learning about Community and Participation. Community means and it is important because

---

---

But community is not just about being surrounded by people. It is about participating. Being an active participant is important to community because

---

---

As Christians, we know we are meant to live in community. Scripture passages that teach us this include

---

---

So thank you for coming today and during this picnic and going forward, please remember

---

---

---

Have a lovely day,
